Convocation Notice: Submission of documents for the students registered for upcoming convocation

Dear Students,

We trust this correspondence finds you in good health. Students already registered for the upcoming convocation at our college campus on the 14th of March 2024, we would like to bring to your attention that many students have neglected to submit their current status documents. It is imperative to submit these documents in order to finalize the convocation process. Please be aware that your presence at the convocation ceremony is dependent on the submission of these documents. We kindly urge you to promptly furnish the necessary information as soon as possible through the provided Google Form. Kindly prioritize this matter.
